Nursing

A Master of Science in Nursing (MSN) degree from Southwest Baptist University equips you to educate the next generation of nurses or serve in health care leadership. Pursue an accredited MSN degree through a combination of online courses and clinical experiences. Plus, this program offers advanced degree options for individuals with a BSN degree. At SBU, your academic advisor works with you to develop an individualized plan of study (part-time, full-time or accelerated) to meet your goals. To fit busy schedules, the program is available both on campus and online through SBU Worldwide Campus.

Physical Therapy

The Doctor of Physical Therapy (DPT) degree is a three-year program comprised of two years of coursework and one year of clinical rotations that will prepare you to become a physical therapist. You will gain the knowledge and skills necessary for a rewarding career in physical therapy, such as critical- and analytical-thinking skills, effective communication skills and professional behaviors. Students earning a physical therapy degree can dual-enroll with the MBA.
